

1979-1980 CHECKPOINT/ANSIBLE FAN POLL — VOTING FORM

The old order changeth, yielding place to new, and kindly Peter Roberts has relinquished not only the Checkpoint mailing list but the annual Checkpoint poll into my (as ever) power-mad clutches. (The changed name is his idea, honest.) The rules remain the same; this is a poll covering UK fannish doings from Easter 1979 to Easter 1980—or, to codify the actual practice of the past, from just after Yorcon '79 to just after Albacon '80. All fans are eligible to vote, though forms are being distributed through Ansible only. Ansible itself is not eligible in the fanzine category. Please fill in and return your form with tachyonic swiftness: the DEADLINE is SATURDAY MAY 31ST 1980. Don't forget to send lots of fascinating news, subscriptions etc with the form; use a separate piece of paper for your votes if the original form seems too precious; and be sure to sign your ballot. C'mon now: let's beat Roberts's rotten turnout of 18...

BEST BRITISH FANZINE

This form sent by: _____

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____

BEST SINGLE ISSUE

[_____]

BEST BRITISH FANWRITER

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____

BEST ARTICLE OR COLUMN

[_____]

BEST BRITISH FANARTIST

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) _____
- 5) _____

BEST FANZINE COVER

[_____]

You may rank up to 5 favoured items in each category on the left (the first gets 5 points, the second 4 and so on); list one nomination only for each category on the right. Votes for your own fanzine or work (though not for others' work in your fanzine) will be ignored. Return form to Dave Langford at 22 Northumberland Avenue, Reading, Berks. RG2 7PW, UK. Free copy of results to all voters.